MORNING SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Greeting

Pastor's Heart

In this morning's portion of scripture we read God's gracious words, "Go in peace." Yet far too few of us are able to walk in the peace of God.

These words are not spoken merely once in the scriptures but make their way from the lips of God over and over again.

What is the key to such a contented and worry free life?

Certainly, the sure knowledge that God has taken care of our debt is essential. This week's financial crisis reminds us of the weight of unsecured debt. To know that we owe God the penalty of our sins is certain to rob us of our peace. But Christ has paid our debt and we are at peace with God --those who have trusted fully upon the Lord.

Peace is assured when we do not have to worry about our essential needs and the daily issues of life. And here too God has taken care of us. He clearly states that we are the most valued of creation and that He will provide for our every need both now and in the days to come.

Death may rob us of our peace, or more pointedly the fear of death may rob us of our living hope. But Jesus defeated death and now the Apostle can shout, "Death where is your victory?" Jesus died to prepare our place in eternity and to grant to us everlasting life.

Securing peace in all of these areas is dependent upon one thing. Peace is dependent upon faith. The more faith, the greater your faith, the more peace will reside in your life. The more you trust Jesus, the more

This morning we will dig deep into this issue of God's love and your faith. Join me as we experience the divine peace that grows from a strong

See you this morning in worship.

College Choir meets tonight

Fourteen folks were present for the inaugural meeting of the NEW First Baptist collegiate choir last Sunday night. This newly-formed choir is open to all young adult college students. After a short discussion, the group decided to meet on Sunday nights following the evening worship service, which usually concludes by 7:00 p.m.

Minister of Music Dr. Jonathan Nelms and Music Ministry Intern Todd Arnold will share leadership of the choir.

Todd comments, "This is a great start to our college choir. Jonathan has said that First Baptist has a strong history of college choir ministry and I am glad to be a part of it."

Dr. Yoomi Paick will be accompanying the choir on piano.

The first meeting of the College Choir on Sunday, September 21.

A native of Seoul, Korea, Yoomi is teaching music composition this semester at Tennessee Tech. She loves the Lord and is thankful for this opportunity to serve.

"The organization of this choir is truly a response to an expressed need," Jonathan observes. "It is wonderful to see our Chi Rho Youth Choir Alumni so enthusiastic about this college choir. Their participation and the support of so many other students are great. I appreciate all that Bill (Stone) and (Neal & Melissa) Marcum are doing to grow our collegiate ministry."

After the opening discussion last Sunday night, the choir rehearsed for about 40 minutes. Likewise, weekly rehearsals will be held in the choir room and should conclude by 8:00 p.m. See Jonathan or Todd for more information.
