

Kids Korner: GAs attend GA JAM, to host Worldcrafts party

By Sissy Vick

The Girls in Action attended the GA JAM on Saturday, October 4 at Tusculum Hills Baptist Church. This was an all-day mission event focusing this year on inner-city missions. Those who attended were Sissy Vick, Jessie Wilson, Jordan Pardue, Hannah Scott, Bethany Timmerman, Sarah Timmerman, Linda Wheeler, Emily Wheeler and Heather Wheeler.

The GAs will be hosting a Worldcrafts catalog party on Wednesday night, October 29 from 5:00-6:30 in the Café. Worldcrafts is an organization that reaches out to people in different areas of poverty and sickness around the world to help them by finding talents they have and helping them turn that talent into a means to provide for their families.

The organization takes the crafts and items that are handmade by them and sells them in the United States. At the same time, they have an opportunity to learn about Jesus through Bible studies and prayer groups that are a part of the program.

The GAs will have a few items to display. This is a great opportunity to do some early Christmas shopping and help support people across the globe at the same time. All proceeds go to Worldcrafts.

Scripture Memory

There are six things which the LORD hates, Yes, seven which are an abomination to Him: Haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that run rapidly to evil, a false witness who utters lies, and one who spreads strife among brothers. Proverbs 6:16-19

Recreation Report

By Colleen Cox
Recreation Coordinator

Upward Emphasis Sunday was truly a special day as we took time to celebrate our 10th anniversary of the Upward ministry at First Baptist Church. As you heard last Sunday, Upward touches numerous lives as about 1,000 people come through our gym each week. Thank you to those of you who helped and will be helping in one of the numerous areas of Upward. There are still many opportunities for you to serve within this ministry. Some of those opportunities are prayer commissioner, devotions commissioner, division commissioners, prayer partners, devotion leaders, coaches and referees. For more information on these or other opportunities within Upward, please contact me in the church office.

Opportunities abound for you to serve within Devoted Basketball - for 7th-12th graders - as well. Devoted grew from Upward and creates an opportunity to reach even more people with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Games for this league will be played on Friday nights with practices during the week. For more information about this league, see Neal or Melissa Marcum.

The recreation ministry is busy beyond Upward as well. This Wednesday we had 18 kids for TeamKID. TeamKID seeks to disciple children through recreation, Bible study, scripture memorization, drama and music. This week children in kindergarten through sixth grade learned about loving their enemies and showing mercy. Join us for TeamKID on Wednesday, October 15 from 6:00-7:30 p.m. in the Family Life Center.

Volleyball provides another outreach to our community. This season we have 15 adult teams and eight youth teams playing on Tuesday and Thursday nights. First Baptist has two youth teams playing on Thursday nights. The regular season lasts only two more weeks but tournaments begin October 30.

Pickup basketball has taken a hiatus during Fall Break but will start again on Monday, October 27. Greg Johnson provides the leadership for pickup basketball, which meets Mondays at 6:00 p.m.
