Upward and Devoted practices underway

By Colleen Cox Recreation Coordinator

The Upward Basketball and Cheerleading[™] season rolled into high gear with the beginning of practices on Monday, December 15. Devoted Basketball tipped off its practices on Monday, December 1.

About 370 children and youth are participating in Upward and Devoted this season with 40 Upward Basketball teams, eight cheer squads and 10 Devoted Basketball teams. Families, players and coaches packed the Family Life Center for the first week of practice. Six hundred fortyseven people came through the FLC for practices on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 4:00-8:00 p.m.

The process of forming teams began with evaluations on November 8 and 10. Numerous volunteers made this a positive experience for families who lined up in our hallways, in the Family Life Center and sat on the bleachers as children were being evaluated for basketball and trying on cheerleader uniforms in the Fellowship Hall.

God has also provided coaches for all the Upward teams. Every coach is required to go through training. Most of the coaches attended training on November 15 and 17. Kenneth Brown came to the November 15 training and shared his testimony about how he had been saved through Upward. Coaches rotated through breakout sessions on rules unique to Upward, substitutions, and devotions and stars before being asked to sign a coach's covenant agree-

The Upward leadership team of Brandon and Lisa Reeves, Tara Masters, and Colleen are working on another coach's training on January 3 for all coaches who haven't yet attended training. These leaders are also planning a two-hour basketball and cheerleading clinic for Kindergarten. Set to take place from 9:00-11:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 3, this clinic will introduce the kindergarteners to Upward.

You still have an opportunity to be on the Upward and/or Devoted team. Another Devoted coach is needed immediately. You also have an opportunity to be a prayer partner, referee, clock operator, concession worker, greeter or give a game day devotional. Contact Colleen and let her know you want to be on the Upward team.

Stewardship Verse

Money is a means to the greater end of glorifying God as we demonstrate practical Christianity in our lives.

Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." 1 Cor. 10:31

Children celebrate Jesus' birth with Happy Birthday Jesus Party

By Colleen Cox Recreation Coordinator

Children three years old through sixth grade celebrated Jesus' birth with a Happy Birthday Jesus Party on Friday, December 12. Forty-two children participated in this iam-packed celebration.

Luminesce performed as children and leaders ate supper. Then kids experienced different parts of the Christmas story through recreation, music and crafts going through a Vacation Bible School type rotation with volunteer leaders.

The game Bethlehem Balloons focused on Joseph taking Mary to his hometown to be counted in the census by giving kids the opportunity to take a census of the balloons. Another activity Bearing Gifts centered on the wise men bringing gifts to Jesus. Children had the opportunity to be a camel and wise men, taking gifts to Jesus.

Kaye Stringer led the music rotation where the kids sang several Christmas songs and rang their bells to Jingle Bells.

Two craft stations, headed up by Patricia Mabry and Linda Huddleston, allowed the children to put stickers on the nativity, make a door knocker with the baby Jesus, assemble I love Jesus necklaces and put together snowmen.

> After finishing the rotation, everyone gathered in the Fellowship Hall as Ann Hertzfeldt read The First Christmas. The children then sang Happy Birthday to Jesus and enjoyed cake and ice cream. At the end of the party, each child received a gift bag.

Children also had the opportunity to give gifts to the Cookeville Pregnancy Clinic. Each family was asked to bring diapers, wipes and a baby gift for the CPC.

Missions during the economic crisis

During the Great Depression, George Beverly Shea was offered a career in popular music. But an inner voice whispered a greater purpose. The answer came in a poem Shea later set to music, I'd Rather Have Jesus. As we face one of the most difficult economic challenges since the Depression, this hymn reminds us that choosing Christ "rather than silver or gold" is the most reliable investment advice we will ever find. As markets fluctuate, Christ is a solid rock.

Another line sings of favoring "His dear cause" over worldliness. Just as Shea has stayed faithful to glorifying God in song around the globe, Southern Baptists have long been faithful to give time and money to help accomplish the worldwide missionary task.

Economic uncertainty affects your families and your church. It also affects every missionary family on the field. Their work cannot go forward without your continued sacrificial giving.

May God bless you in your ever-faithful obedience to our Great Commission task.

Scripture Memory

There are six things which the LORD hates, Yes, seven which are an abomination to Him: Haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that run rapidly to evil, a false witness who utters lies, and one who spreads strife among brothers. Proverbs 6:16-19
