Lord.

Malachi is a practical book of inspiration and instruction. Blessed will be the person who digs out its treasures. Let's start digging!

See you in Worship, Pastor Randy

The Sanctuary Choir will be singing three favorite gospel anthems in the evening service. In response to popular demand, planned as well.

Pastor's Heart

It's always great to do missions across the globe and to see the response of people to the Gospel in places where the Gospel has never been heard. Oh, that America could again hear the Gospel with fresh ears and open hearts. Instead, I am afraid that we have become a nation hardened to the grace of God by our enjoyment of the blessing of God.

It's also great to be home and to worship with you this morning. I may be a bit jetlagged after 24 hours of airports and planes, but I am still looking forward to a wonderful time of worship as we lift our hearts to the

This morning we are looking at the prophet Malachi. And as important as Malachi's words are concerning stewardship and economics, the book is much more than merely a setting for chapter three. Malachi is all about wonderful, meaningful worship. It is an encouragement to deep, life changing, purposeful worship. It is about encountering the living God through our time in His sanctuary.

So, set your intention toward God. Set your mind upon His word. Decide now that you are going to seek His instruction for you and that you are going to obey any and every directive that His word places before you. Enter into worship with expectancy, excitement, and exclamation.

Gospel music tonight

Operation Christmas Child volunteers needed

By Brenda Spain

Shoebox time is here and we need volunteers! Beginning Sunday, November 15, we will need volunteers to help with the boxes that are collected from our church after our dedication service.

If you would like to volunteer, please sign up either in the central lobby or at the tower entrance with your name, cell phone number and the times you can help during National Collection Week November 15-23. I promise you will be blessed for volunteering! If you have any questions, please call Joyce Raines at 529-0808 or Brenda Spain at 265-0645.

During the dedication service, everyone is asked to bring up their boxes after the offering plate passes your aisle. What a precious time this is to see families come together and leave their gifts on the Lord's altar.

We are looking to exceed our church goal of 600 shoeboxes. I am asking you, if you can, to bring in one more box than you did last year. These boxes are now called "Gospel Opportunities," and that means that another child gets to hear about the love of Jesus Christ!

Boxes are available in the Central Lobby today and next Sunday. The cardboard shoeboxes are free. But I'm asking that you give $1 to cover the cost of the plastic shoeboxes.

If you are unable to get a box filled I have a "secret shopper" that is excited about filling your box. It takes approximately $20-25 plus the $7 shipping fee to fill a box. Let any Operation Christmas Child volunteers know if we can be of service.
