Youth Sunday

By Bill Stone
Associate Pastor of Youth & Collegiates

Today is Youth Sunday at First Baptist Church. This annual event gives our youth the opportunity to assume temporary leadership positions in teaching and in leading worship. This year youth will also be doing service projects for our senior adults, widows, and widowers. Many youth taught preschoolers, children, and adults in Sunday School this morning. During our morning and evening worship services today our Chi Rho Youth Choir will be singing, youth will be reading scriptures, Christian Johnson and Logan Parris will be sharing their personal testimonies, and Luminesce will presenting an interpretive song.

We welcome Tony Rankin today as he shares God's Word through preaching and teaching.

Tony is a husband to Amber for 28 years, is a dad to Drew, Caleb, and Katelin, and has written over 280 articles and advice columns. Tony is the Counseling and Family Ministry Specialist at the Tennessee Baptist Convention and has a private practice in counseling. Tony travels throughout the country speaking on counseling issues, family crises, and leading seminars for churches, schools, and corporations.

Immediately following the morning worship service Tony will be speaking to teenagers and their families at a free luncheon in the Fellowship Hall. I hope you will join us for this informative and helpful seminar. Then from 4:00-5:00 p.m. today in our chapel Tony will be leading a seminar for parents of preschoolers and children.

There will be a Youth After Church Fellowship at Gray Forrester's home located at 824 N. Washington Ave. from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Special thanks to our First Baptist Church Family for supporting our youth with your prayers, words of encouragement, your godly example, and with your presence in Bible study and worship.
