

First Baptist Church, Cookeville, Tennessee seeks an experienced, full-time, Minister of Music to join our church family. We are a multigenerational, Southern Baptist congregation, united in worship services of blended music. This person, as part of our ministerial staff, will serve as leader of the various aspects of corporate worship, including responsibility for a multifaceted music ministries program. The music ministry includes choirs of various skill levels and age group, orchestra, hand bells, and media ministry. Cookeville, seat of Putnam County (pop. 72,000), is located in the beautiful Upper Cumberland region of Tennessee, and home to Tennessee Technological University and the Bryan Symphony Orchestra.

Qualifications partially include:

- *A personal sense of God's call to the Christian ministry as a vocation.
- *A Master's Degree graduate of an accredited college or university required.
- *A graduate of a theological seminary of the Southern Baptist Convention, preferred.
- *Evidence of leadership & interpersonal skills necessary to inspire confidence and cooperation in a ministry that reaches beyond the church into the community.
